

Imagination, Creativity, and Innovation

21st Century Skills in Arts Education

You are invited to an Arts Education Forum for Region 10

An exciting mini-conference on arts education for school administrators, teachers, policy makers, and community arts advocates.

May 15, 2010

8:30 – 3:30

California State University at San Bernardino

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Victoria Stevens, offering the latest research on how the arts play a key role in brain development, and how to use brain-based teaching techniques to improve student learning

Valuable information

on resources for arts
instruction, integration,
planning, and professional development

DRAWING

Will be held for art supplies, cool things.

Break out Sessions

Arts education with at-risk, foster, and incarcerated youth – Dr. Victoria Stevens. How do the arts impact emotional regulation? How can teachers use the arts to help at-risk youth improve academic success?

&

Master Classes in the Visual and Performing Arts

REGISTRATION: $10 for the event, lunch is included. Online registration is available at:

<http://oms.sbcss.k12.ca.us/28-35917>

Or contact Rasamee Jaycox at 909-386-2611

Deadline: May 8, 2010

Funding for this event has been provided by the Hewlett Foundation, CCSESA